THANKSGIVING

November 2026

gratitude dinner

Our Thanksgiving Dinner is all about coming together to share warmth, joy, and thankfulness. As JPP families gather around the table, they reflect on their achievements and express gratitude for the positive moments and supportive people in their lives.

This heartfelt celebration is an opportunity to bring hope and connection to families working toward brighter futures. Join us in making this special event possible—your support will help create a memorable evening filled with gratitude and community.
